Design for a Modern Collection

AZHAR

Organic shapes on rigorous geometries for a collection of seats that represents a tribute to modernism, declined in a range of different proposals: with lacquered aluminum casting frame, with chromed or lacquered tube or round steel, or in solid wooden legs. Azhar has a shell in high-density polypropylene that, combined with certain types of structures, stackable or not, make it suitable for outdoor use. Seat cushion available in fireproof Trevira fabric in black or in white eco-leather.
